figures for 1994-95 are inclusive of approximates lor the month March, 1995, accounts of which are yet to be closed.

(b) and (c) The following additional facilities are being planned to augment transport capacity:

(i) Electrification of Vijayawada-Visakhapatnam section is in progress. The work is targeted for completion by 1996-97.

(ii) Platforms on Vijayawada-Vtsakhapatnam section are being ex-fended so that loads of long distance trains can be augmented by 3 to 4 coaches each.

(iii) The provision of crossing stations at Peddavotapalli. Pulla and Badampudi on Vijayawada-Vishakhapat-nam jsection costing Rs. 8.56 crores and provision of centiialised panel interlocking' for the operation of points and signals at Rajahmundry costing Rs. 4.85 crores are already sanctioned for execution to laugment the line capacity from 36 paths at present to 40 'each' way, thereby facilitating in-trdductioii df additional train services on Vijayawada-Visakhapatnam section:

(iv.).. Five additional crossing sta--tions have been planned on Vijaya-wada-Gupttir-Secunderabad section which will substantially increase the capacity of this section to handle more trains.

(v) Gauge Conversion works are in progress on GTL Division.

(vi) Augmentation of facilities at stations is a continuous process and wherever so warranted by the increase in passenger traffic the same is undertaken through Railway's Annuial Works Programme and subject to overall availability of funds/relative priorities. Accordingly, in 1994-95, works pertaining! to . improvement/ iaugmentation of facilities have been completed at Anaparti, Annavaram, Guntur, Narasapur, Kakinad|a Town, Vetapalem, Akividu, Kaikalur, Ongole, Nellore and Rajiahmundry railway stations. Further works have been taken up or are proposed to be taken up at Nellore, Tenali, Kavali, Riajah-mundry, Guntur, Nidubrolu, Anaka-palle, Tuni, Ongole, Chinna Ganjam, Chiralia, VijayaWada, Bhimavaram Town, Nidadavolu, Modukuru, Narsi-patnam Road and Gudivada Railway Stations also.

Inttroduction of computerised booking in Andlwa Pradesh

4647. SHRI V. HANUMANTHA RAO: Will the Minister of RAII.-' WAYS be plqased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal to introduce computerised booking in all district headquarters in Andhra Pra desh;

'(b) how - many new computerised booking centres would be opened in South Centrial Railway, particularlyin the district headquarters in 1995-96; and :

(c) the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI C. K. JAFFER SHARIEF): (a) No, Sir. However, 28 locations in-cluding 19 stations and 9 satellite locations in Andhra Priadesh have already been provided with this facility.

(b) and (c) The provision of com puterised reservation facilitites has. been approved for Kiakinada City Boking Office in 1995-96. In additiotv,; the provision of these facilities has also been approved for Thirumalai! and Karimganj City Booking Offices,